

Summer Camp Teaching Positions

Artist & Jr. Teaching Artist

ABOUT THE POSITION

Do you have a passion for inspiring creativity in young minds? Are you looking for an exciting opportunity to join a dynamic team of teaching artists? Our innovative network of school-based and center-based youth development programs is seeking Teaching Artists & Jr. Teaching Artists for a summer day camp serving children ages 5-14 in Bushwick and Williamsburg, Brooklyn and Elmhurst, Jackson Heights, and Jamaica, Queens.

As a Teaching Artist, you will have the opportunity to explore a variety of popular art forms with our enthusiastic and curious youth. From Visual Arts to Dance/Movement, Theater, and Music, our program offers a diverse range of disciplines for our students to learn and grow. As part of our creative team, you will receive frequent feedback on your classroom management and lesson plans, allowing you to continuously improve and innovate your teaching approach.

We are seeking versatile and flexible teachers who are excited to be part of a collaborative and dynamic environment. The ideal candidate will possess excellent classroom management skills and be able to communicate sensitively and professionally with a diverse range of students and colleagues. As a Teaching Artist, you will have the opportunity to develop your own unique approach to working with youth and contribute to a vibrant and engaging learning environment.

If you have experience working with youth and are passionate about inspiring creativity, we encourage you to apply for this exciting opportunity. Join our team of dedicated Teaching Artists and make a positive impact on the lives of young people in Brooklyn and Queens!
